

Ideation Phase

Define the Problem Statements

Date	23 october 2022
Team ID	PNT2022TMID16591
Project Name	University Admit Eligibility Predictor
Maximum Marks	2 Marks

Problem Statement

Problem Statement (PS)	I am (Customer)	I'm trying to	But	Because	Which makes me feel
PS-1	A student is a person who goes to school to learn something. Students can be children, teenagers, or adults who are going to school, but it may also be other people who are learning, such as in college or university. A younger student is often called a pupil	Make sure you've chosen the right subject. It is fundamental to be 120% sure about your subject. ... Consult university rankings. Find out what the university library is like. ... Check the course content. See what sports and societies are on offer.	If you don't get an offer from the uni you had your heart set on, here are some alternative options you can start researching now: Accept another university offer. Apply to different courses through Ucas Extra or Clearing. Take a gap year while you reconsider your options.	This is the most important factor for college admissions. It is also the one most parents are unaware of in the early years of a student's high school education	Anxiety is a feeling of fear, dread, and uneasiness. It might cause you to sweat, feel restless and tense, and have a rapid heartbeat. It can be a normal reaction to stress. For example, you might feel anxious when faced with a difficult problem at work, before taking a test, or before making an important decision

		Find out about the student accommodation
PS-2	A student is a person who goes to school to learn something. Students can be children, teenagers, or adults who are going to school, but it may also be other people who are learning, such as in college or university. A younger student is often called a pupil	Book a study abroad program through your university. ... Find study abroad programs through a third-party provider. ... Enroll directly with a university overseas. ... Supplement your learning with field research abroad. ... Intern for school credit. ... Start early with a high school study abroad program	Being confused is normal because there are various options available these days no matter what you want to pursue. As a student myself, I have been through this phase and although a large part of the confusion is solved depending on how well you do in your exams. There are various courses and colleges which rely more on entrance exams so .	University is full of opportunities, but sometimes it can be hard to know which way to look first – or at least know where you’re headed – especially when your peers seem to know what they’re doing.	Frustrated is an adjective that describes feeling disappointed and unsuccessful. If you try to fix your car for hours and hours but it still won't work, you will feel frustrated. People become frustrated when they fail to achieve their goals, both large and small